

PADUCAH ARTIST | WILLIAM RENZULLI

William Renzulli and one of his whippets enjoy the casual atmosphere in his Paducah studio.

Paducah, Kentucky artist William Renzulli created the painting, Distant Hills, a 60" x 48" acrylic on canvas. It represents an amalgam of Kentucky landscapes. The foreground is based on a photo taken in Livingston County just east of Paducah's McCracken County. The distant mountains reflect those in far eastern Kentucky.

Cover artist William Renzulli produced a series of posters commemorating historic Paducah buildings such as the ones shown here.
